III. Notes:

1. The assistance mentioned above does not include students from Mainland China who are enrolled under the regulations for Mainland Chinese students studying in Taiwan.

2. When a department or instructor identifies a student who meets the application criteria of these Regulations, the student or the instructor shall fill out the "National Cheng Kung University Emergency and Condolence Allowances Application Form." After the advisor and department (or institute) head review and approve, the application, along with the student's enrollment and relevant supporting documents, should be submitted to the Military Training Division of the Office of Student Affairs (hereinafter referred to as the Office).

3. Applications must be submitted within three months of the incident. The Office will conduct an initial review, and then forward the application to the relevant units for further review according to administrative procedures. Once approved, the allowance will be directly transferred to the recipient's account or a check will be issued by the Cashier Division and forwarded to the recipient or their immediate family member.

4. Applications for the same incident are limited to once per year (365 days).
